

RRAMS

Koshkonong

Float Fly 11

Rock River Aeromodelers Society Chapter 669 of Janesville, WI

Large sand beach, artesian well, (really good water) and this event is preceded by Chilly-Mania in Edgerton the day before. Flying from 8:00AM to 9:00AM electrics only with all flying until 3:00PM or so

Water retrieval, very large lake, western shore, protected from most south and western winds, refreshments, private clubhouse, motel and camping available nearby: Landing fee $5.00

Sept 11th 2011

Directions to lakefront 80 Forest Dr. Edgerton, WI

From the North on I-90 From Exit 160 on I-90 go North on Hwy 73 (1/3 mile), then East on Hwy 106 (1/3 mile), then South on Hillside Rd approx 1.6 miles, then turn left which is East on Highwood Dr. (large sign for Highwood Subdivision) to end (.3 miles), turn right (South) three short blocks and go to your left (East) to lake.

From the South on I-90 Exit 163 go straight through the light Goede Rd between the Shell and McDonalds about 225 yards and turn right on Jason to end about one block. Turn left onto Hillside for 2 miles to Highwood. (large sign for Highwood Subdivision) Turn right to end (.3 miles), turn right (South) three short blocks and go to your left (East) to lake

Check our website at: WWW.RRAMS.NET check out the newsletter

Contest Director Bob King: bobking@levelflight.net or 608-868-4407

Madison Area Radio Control Society
October 6th Meeting
7:00 p.m.

Special Program

Jim Sandquist of Hobbico's R & D Team will be presenting a program on
"Products of Hobbico - Development, Quality and Value in the Market Place". at our October 6th meeting. He will also be sharing products from Hobbico. We may also get a sneak preview of a brand new product to be released at I-Hobby the end of October.

Hobbico will also be providing prizes for a free raffle for everyone in attendance, including a 2.4 ghz Transmitter.

I NEED TO LET JIM SANDQUIST KNOW HOW MANY GOODIES TO BRING FOR US!
ANYONE PLANNING ON ATTENDING NEEDS TO EMAIL ME BEFORE SEPT. 28TH AT

davidgenerush@yahoo.com